GOOD HOUSEKEEPING

Has never before had so rich a Bill of Fare to lay before its readers as the one prepared for Volume Five. Will contain a new serial by CATHERINE OWEN, entitled

“Molly Bishop's Family,

FROM BABYHOOD TO MEN AND WOMEN; A HOME STORY OF LIFE'S VICISSITUDES.” With practical lessons for the guidance of those who don't know, but would like to know, how the Children of the Household should enjoy health and long life.

Housekeeping in Foreign Lands.

An illustrated paper on “Housekeeping in an English Rectory,” a very entertaining paper by a resident of a charming English rectory.

“Housekeeping in Honduras,” with illustrations.

“Housekeeping in Florence,” with an illustration of the kitchen of the writer.

“Swiss Housekeeping,” by an experienced housekeeper.

Coffee Making and Coffee Spoiling.

By the world's best authorities on the subject of Coffee Making,—Maria Parloa, Marion Harland, Mrs. Helen Campbell, Catherine Owen, Juliet Corson, Mrs. D. A. Lincoln. A group of papers more notable and of greater value to housekeepers than anything of the kind ever published.

Meals for the Many of Moderate Means.

A valuable and unique series from the pen of Juliet Corson, one of the most experienced and authoritative writers on cooking, who has had great success and won much fame for her practical writings; this will be a most welcome series of papers, particularly so in homes where there are many mouths to fill and much anxiety of mind as to how to fill them comfortably, conveniently and healthfully. School teachers and students, who “board themselves,” and old bachelors and “anxious and aimless” maids, will be interested in the perusal of Miss Corson's “Meals for the Many of Moderate Means.”

The above are but a few of the attractive features of GOOD HOUSEKEEPING, Volume Five. Send for a sample copy, and then after carefully perusing it decide whether you can make a better investment for $2.50 than to take it for one year.

GOOD HOUSEKEEPING gives its readers Two Volumes each year, of Thirteen Numbers each—Twenty-six Numbers a year. Subscription price $2.50 a year; single copies Ten Cents, which may be had from any Newsdealer in the country. Sample copies, 10 cents.
